

Taking part

Participation is confidential and only those that take part will receive project results, which will be shown anonymously.

ACE Benchmarking has been designed for companies with a 50+ headcount, and runs in conjunction with the European CEO Conference.

If you have 50 employees or less and would like to take part in ACE Benchmarking there is a program designed specifically for your business needs, please visit the ACE Benchmarking Lite section on our website.

What you will receive?

- Industry overview – a look at the performance of companies across the entire industry
- Individual report – an analysis of your company against similar size competitors

To download a sample report of the outputs from the ACE Benchmarking programme please visit the ACE website.

Attendance to the European CEO Conference is conditional on the completion of the ACE Benchmarking survey.
