

ACE Emerging Professionals Regional Lead - Wales

Are you interested in being the voice of emerging professionals and shaping discussions on the future of our natural and built environment? We are seeking passionate, drive and collaborative minded emerging professional (up to 10 years professionals experience) to lead an ACE Emerging Professionals regional committee in Wales.

Role description:

The role involves leading a committee of Emerging Professionals with the aim of providing a platform for professionals to develop their awareness of industry trends shaping the future of consultancy and workplace. The Lead has an important role to play in ensuring that the work group functions effectively, that there is full and inclusive participation at meetings, all relevant matters are discussed and that proactive and positive decisions are made with actions. Our Wales Lead will also work collaboratively with the wider ACE Committee within the region working on their priority areas of Decarbonisation, The Value Toolkit and Welsh Government Procurement. Acting as Lead can also enable an individual to gain valuable skills and grow their personal network providing opportunities to raise an individual's profile within the industry through speaking opportunities, blogs and articles.

Benefits to Individual:

- Be the voice of built and natural environment Emerging Professionals within your allocated region and as part of the wider ACE team
- Be at the forefront of industry knowledge and identify emerging trends and future opportunities
- Identify future trends, both business and industry wide
- Grow your network, both internally and externally with emerging professionals and experienced professionals.
- Put yourself forward as a future leader within your organisation and industry
- Opens opportunities to speak, chair events/debates and attend conferences
- Manage diversity issues and promoting change
- Grow your skills and ability to lead and influence others
- Develop knowledge and understanding of working alongside Board and C-Suite teams

Benefits to Business:

- Succession Planning: helps you identify the next generation of leaders for your business
- Staff are learning whilst enjoying and evolving with small cost and time to the business
- Future leaders develop emotional intelligence essential for the success of your business
- Raises their profile internally and externally, therefore raising your business profile
- Develop a professional network across a range of disciplines within the industry
- Opportunity for business leaders to speak at Emerging Professional and ACE events.

Skills, Knowledge & Capabilities for the role:

- Leadership – Desire and awareness for leading a committee, events alongside providing direction and guidance to team members
- Interpersonal & communication – Strong teamwork ethos, a passion for public speaking. Knowledge and experience of effective delegation
- Organisation and planning – Highly organised and able to juggle multiple demands on resource. Ability to arrange and coordinate event logistics
- Exceptional written and spoken English, experience in sourcing and creating strategic plans, publication content and social media feeds
- Embraces inclusivity – Always seeks to include diversity of thought and contribution. Leads with impartiality, fairness, and inclusivity
- Committed and proactive - Ability to ensure issues are taken forward and followed-up, is solution focused

How to apply: Please complete the attached questionnaire and return with your CV to ACE via recruitment@acenet.co.uk

ACE Emerging Professionals Regional Lead Application Form

Name:

Company:

Position:

Email:

Office Location:

Contact Number:

1. Please confirm whether the company you work for is a member organisation of the Association for Consultancy & Engineering \(ACE\) or Environmental Industries Commission?
2. Please share with us why you are interested in this specific position.
3. What impact do you feel you would have on the Emerging professional vision if you were successful?
4. Have you secured support from your employer to apply for this post?